Quality Policy

NDT Equipment Supplies Ltd and all our employees are committed to the development, implementation and success of our Quality Management System established to the Quality Standard BS EN ISO 9001: 2008. Through monitoring and measurement we will seek to continually improve the Quality Management System

We will maintain close communication with our customers to establish their changing needs and expectations and it is our policy to meet these contracted commitments.

The Quality Management System will be supported through continual staff training and awareness to ensure that our policies and objectives are maintained and relevant to our requirements. The prime objective of all members of staff is to ensure customer satisfaction by:

- Getting it right first time every time.
- Meeting customer requirements.
- Ensuring on-time deliveries.

Quality objectives will be set in line with the current plan and the requirements of the business. These objectives will be reviewed and new targets set within the management of the business.
